

This is a detailed architectural floor plan of a large, multi-story building, likely a school or institutional structure. The plan shows numerous rooms, corridors, and stairwells, each labeled with a number. The layout is complex, with many small rooms and larger open spaces. The drawing is in black and white, with lines indicating walls, doors, and furniture. The overall shape is roughly rectangular, with several extensions and a central corridor system.